With Dr. Dilip S. Javali, President-KUA in the Chair, meeting was called to order.

Dr. Dilip S. Javali presented a very brief presidential address, requesting greater participation from our members.

Dr. Venkatesh Krishnamoorthy presented the Secretary's report, which too was very brief. Essentially it covered the last KUACON at Mysore. He also emphasized the fact that while many People had promised to consider an interim workshop to be held around the month of March, this had not been successful last year. The idea of forming an organisation within the State of Karnataka was to have interaction within the members present, and also to highlight the work being done within the state of Karnataka, presented by the faculty within Karnataka itself. We hope it be more successful in the coming year.

ADAPPA MEMORIAL BEST PAPER AWARD - Rs. 2,000 = 00

PIKA URO - QUIZ 1st Prize - Rs. 2,000 = 00

2nd Prize - Rs. 1,000 = 00

Both the Secretary's and Treasurer's report were passes unanimously.

The various urological forums of the state presented a brief report. Dr. Prakash Prabhu for MYSOGUS, Dr. Raviraj Raykar for the Hubli Urology Forum, Dr. M. Madaiah for Bangalore Urology Society, and Dr. Ashok Pandit for Mangalore Urology Forum.

Next on the agenda was venue to be decided for the year 2003. The urologists from Manipal were keen to hold the conference in 2002, as it was the 25th year of their urological activities. After discussion in the general body with the Hubli urologists, who were otherwise slated to organise the next KUACON. It was decided to have the 7th KUACON at Manipal in the year 2002, and the 8th
